

THE ARMS ACT, 1959

INTRODUCTION

The Indian Arms Act, 1878 (11 of 1878), was intended to disarm the entire nation. Even after independence, the law declaring "swords, daggers, spears, spear-heads, bow and arrows" as "arms" had been allowed to continue unaltered on the Statute Book. The rigours of the Arms Act and rules thereunder continued to make it difficult for law abiding citizens to possess firearms for self-defence. To focus Parliament's attention on this vital subject the Indian Arms (Amendment) Bill (49 of 1953) was introduced in the Lok Sabha on the 27th of November, 1953. It was discussed in the House and was circulated for public opinion. Opinions were received from the State Governments which contained not only their own views but also those of many legal luminaries, Bar Associations, Judges, Collectors, Senior Police Officers and local bodies of their respective States. On the basis of those opinions the re-drafted Arms Bill was introduced in the Parliament.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Indian Arms Act, 1878, was intended to disarm the entire nation. Even after independence, the law declaring "swords, daggers, spears, spear-heads, bow and arrows" as "arms" has been allowed to continue unaltered on the statute book. The rigours of the Arms Act and rules thereunder continue to make it difficult for law abiding citizens to possess firearms for self-defence whereas terrorists, dacoit-gangs and other anti-social or anti-national elements are using not only civilian weapons but also bombs, hand-grenades, Bren-guns, Sten-guns, 303 bore service rifles and revolvers of military type, for perpetrating heinous crimes against society and the State.

The Indian Arms (Amendment) Bill (49 of 1953) was introduced by the undersigned in the Lok Sabha on the 27th November, 1953 to focus Parliament's attention on this vital subject. It was discussed in the House on 26th March, 1954 and was circulated for public opinion.

Opinions were received from all the State Governments which contained not only their own views but also those of many legal luminaries, Bar Associations, Judges, Collectors, Senior Police Officers and local Bodies of their respective State. On the basis of those opinions, this Bill has been drafted.

The objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to exclude knives, spears, bows and arrows and the like from the definition of "arms";
- (b) to classify firearms and other prohibited weapons so as to ensure—
 - (i) that dangerous weapons of military patterns are not available to civilians, particularly the anti-social elements;
 - (ii) that weapons for self-defence are available for all citizens under license unless their antecedents or propensities do not entitle them for the privilege; and
 - (iii) that firearms required for training purpose and ordinary civilian use are made easily available on permits;

- (c) to co-ordinate the right of the citizen with the necessity of maintaining law and order and avoiding fifth-column activities in the country;
- (d) to recognize the right of the State to requisition the services of every citizen in national emergencies. The licensees and permit holders for firearms, shikaris, target shooters and rifle-men in general (in appropriate age groups) will be of great service to the country in emergencies, if the Government can properly mobilize and utilize them.

ACT 54 OF 1959

The Arms Bill having been passed by both the Houses of Parliament received the assent of President on 23rd December, 1959. It came on the Statute Book as THE ARMS ACT, 1959 (54 of 1959) (Came into force on 1-10-1962).

4. 7. Prohibition of acquisition or possession, or of manufacture or sale, of prohibited arms or prohibited ammunition.—No person shall—

- (a) acquire, have in his possession or carry; or

(a) no person,—

- (i) who has not completed the age of ⁴[twenty-one years], or shall acquire, have in his possession or carry any firearm or ammunition;

- (b) no person shall sell or transfer any firearm or ammunition to, or convert, repair, test or prove any firearm or ammunition for, any other person whom he knows, or has reason to believe—
 - (i) to be prohibited under clause (a) from acquiring, having in his possession or carrying any firearm or ammunition, or
 - (ii) to be of unsound mind at the time of such sale or transfer, or such conversion, repair, test or proof.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in sub-clause (i) of clause (a) of sub-section (1), a person who has attained the prescribed age-limit may use under prescribed conditions such firearms as may be prescribed in the course of his training in the use of such firearms:

Provided that different age-limits may be prescribed in relation to different types of firearms.

10. Licence for import and export of arms, etc.—(1) No person shall bring into, or take out of, India by sea, land or air any arms or ammunition unless he holds in this behalf a licence issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder:

Provided that—

- (a) a person who is entitled by virtue of this Act or any other law for the time being in force to have, or is not prohibited by this Act or such other law from having, in his possession any arms or ammunition, may without a licence in this behalf bring into, or take out of, India such arms or ammunition in reasonable quantities for his own private use;
- (b) a person being a bona fide tourist belonging to any such country as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify, who is not prohibited by the laws of that country from having in his possession any arms or ammunition, may, without a licence under this section but in accordance with such conditions as may be prescribed, bring with him into India arms and ammunition in reasonable quantities for use by him for purposes only of sport and for no other purpose.

Explanation.—For purposes of clause (b) of this proviso, the word “tourist” means a person who not being a citizen of India visits India for a period not exceeding six months with no other object than recreation, sight-seeing, or participation in a representative capacity in meetings convened by the Central Government or in international conferences, associations or other bodies.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the proviso to sub-section (1) where the ¹[Commissioner of Customs] or any other officer empowered by the Central Government in this behalf has any doubt as to the applicability of clause (a) or clause (b) of that proviso to any person who claims that such clause is applicable to him, or as to the reasonableness of the quantities of arms or ammunition in the possession of any person referred to in such clause, or as to the use to which such arms or ammunition may be put by such person, may detain the arms or ammunition in the possession of such person until he receives the orders of the Central Government in relation thereto.

1. Subs. by Act 22 of 1995, sec. 89, for “Collector of Customs” (w.e.f. 26-5-1995).

12. Power to restrict or prohibit transport of arms.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette,—

(a) direct that no person shall transport over India or any part thereof arms or ammunition of such classes and descriptions as may be specified in the notification unless he holds in this behalf a licence issued in accordance with provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder; or

(b) prohibit such transport altogether.

(2) Arms or ammunition trans-shipped at a seaport or an airport in India are transported within the meaning of this section.

CHAPTER III

PROVISIONS RELATING TO LICENCES

13. Grant of licences.—(1) An application for the grant of a licence under Chapter II shall be made to the licensing authority and shall be in such form, contain such particulars and be accompanied by such fee, if any, as may be prescribed.

¹[(2) On receipt of an application, the licensing authority shall call for the report of the officer in charge of the nearest police station on that application, and such officer shall send his report within the prescribed time.

(2A) The licensing authority, after such inquiry, if any, as it may consider necessary, and after considering the report received under sub-section (2), shall, subject to the other provisions of this Chapter, by order in writing either grant the licence or refuse to grant the same:

Provided that where the officer in charge of the nearest police station does not send his report on the application within the prescribed time, the licensing authority may, if it deems fit, make such order, after the expiry of the prescribed time, without further waiting for that report.]

(3) The licensing authority shall grant—

(a) a licence under section 3 where the licence is required—

1. Subs. by Act 25 of 1983, sec. 6, for sub-section (2) (w.r.e.f. 22-6-1983).

- (i) by a citizen of India in respect of a smooth bore gun having a barrel of not less than twenty inches in length to be used for protection or sport or in respect of a muzzle loading gun to be used for bona fide crop protection:

Provided that where having regard to the circumstances of any case, the licensing authority is satisfied that a muzzle loading gun will not be sufficient for crop protection, the licensing authority may grant a licence in respect of any other smooth bore gun as aforesaid for such protection; or

- (ii) in respect of a ¹[firearm] to be used for target practice by a member of a rifle club or rifle association licensed or recognised by the Central Government;
- (b) a licence under section 3 in any other case or a licence under section 4, section 5, section 6, section 10 or section 12, if the licensing authority is satisfied that the person by whom the licence is required has a good reason for obtaining the same.

COMMENTS

(i) Although there is hardly any provision in the Act or the Rules specifying any time-frame as such, but if an application for a licence for a non-prohibited arm is not disposed of within three months, it will be deemed to have been allowed after the expiry of such a time-frame. The point is to make the licensing authority realise that they cannot prolong or linger-on the disposal of such application(s) at their own sweet will; Ganesh Chandra Bhatt v. District Magistrate, Almora, AIR 1993 All 291.

(ii) As far as the power and discretion of the licensing authority, which includes the Government, is concerned in respect of arms under the general category, it may grant or refuse the licence, even if the procedural nuisances have been fully adhered to; Kapildeo Singh v. State of Bihar, AIR 1987 Pat 122.

(iii) For a 'licensing authority' as defined under section 2 (f), it is obligatory to grant a licence if an Indian citizen applies for it for the reason of his protection. In that case, refusal to grant it will be unjustified and unsustainable, provided the applicant has duly justified the reasons and adhered to the procedures/conditions as laid down in this regard; Ram Khelawan Misra v. State of Uttar Pradesh, AIR 1982 All 283.

14. Refusal of licences.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in section 13, licensing authority shall refuse to grant—

- (a) a licence under section 3, section 4 or section 5 where such licence is required in respect of any prohibited arms or prohibited ammunition;
- (b) a licence in any other case under Chapter II,—
 - (i) where such licence is required by a person whom the licensing authority has reason to believe—
 - (1) to be prohibited by this Act or by any other law for the time being in force from acquiring, having in his possession or carrying any arms or ammunition, or
 - (2) to be of unsound mind, or
 - (3) to be for any reason unfit for a licence under this Act; or
 - (ii) where the licensing authority deems it necessary for the security of the public peace or for public safety to refuse to grant such licence.

1. Subs. by Act 48 of 2019, sec. 7, for "point 22 bore rifle or a . air rifle" [w.e.f. 14-12-2019, vide S.O. 4462(E), dated 14th December, 2019].

(2) The licensing authority shall not refuse to grant any licence to any person merely on the ground that such person does not own or possess sufficient property.

(3) Where the licensing authority refuses to grant a licence to any person it shall record in writing the reasons for such refusal and furnish to that person on demand a brief statement of the same unless in any case the licensing authority is of the opinion that it will not be in the public interest to furnish such statement.

COMMENTS

(i) Under this provision, 'public peace' and 'public safety' do not imply a stray or an ordinary disturbance of law and order. The licence can be cancelled, suspended or refused on its renewal on the grounds of disturbance or breach of law and order of such a 'magnitude' which cannot be ignored as just a stray or an ordinary one. It also depends on the apprehended or actual repercussions; Ganesh Chandra Bhatt v. District Magistrate, Almora, AIR 1993 All 291.

(ii) As regards the Arms Act, 1959, organic interpretation of its provisions facilitates proper consideration of the right to self-defence, present social conditions and correct interpretation of the Constitution so as not to render the statutes/provisions unconstitutional. In this context, the licence for non-prohibited arm shall be ordinarily allowed with an exception in case of 'hardened criminals' or those involved in 'horrendous crimes', while the licence for prohibited arms shall not be ordinarily allowed; Ganesh Chandra Bhatt v. District Magistrate, Almora, AIR 1993 All 291.

(iii) Merely on the ground(s) of implication in petty crime(s) or on the basis of a false F.I.R., the arms licence shall/ cannot be cancelled/suspended, for it may be a senile 'ploy' to deprive the licence holder of his licensed weapon and disarm him so as to endanger his life. Hence, in such cases, examination of all relevant facts is an essential pre-requisite before cancellation/suspension of any licence; Ganesh Chandra Bhatt v. District Magistrate, Almora, AIR 1993 All 291.

(iv) The law mandates a refusal to grant licence even if the applicant has duly followed the procedure, where the licensing authority has reason(s) to believe that he is, for any reason, 'unfit' for the licence under the Act. 'Unfit' is used in the context of 'hardened criminals' or those involved in 'horrendous crimes'; Kapildeo Singh v. State of Bihar, AIR 1987 Pat 122.

15. Duration and renewal of licence—(1) A licence under section 3 shall, unless revoked earlier, continue in force for a ¹[period of five years] from the date on which it is granted:

Provided that such a licence may be granted for a shorter period if the person by whom the licence is required so desires or if the licensing authority for reasons to be recorded in writing considers in any case that the licence should be granted for a shorter period:

²[Provided further that the licence granted under section 3 shall be subject to the conditions specified in sub-clauses (ii) and (iii) of clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 9 and the licensee shall produce the licence along with the firearm or ammunition and connected document before the licensing authority after every five years from the date on which it is granted or renewed.]

(2) A licence under any other provision of Chapter II shall, unless revoked earlier, continue in force for such period from the date on which it is granted as the licensing authority may in each case determine.

1. Subs. by Act 48 of 2019, sec. 8(a), for "period of three years" [w.e.f. 14-12-2019, vide S.O. 4462(E), dated 14th December, 2019].

2. Ins. by Act 48 of 2019, sec. 8(b) [w.e.f. 14-12-2019, vide S.O. 4462(E), dated 14th December, 2019].

(3) Every licence shall, unless the licensing authority for reasons to be recorded in writing otherwise decides in any case, be renewable for the same period for which the licence was originally granted and shall be so renewable from time to time, and the provisions of sections 13 and 14 shall apply to the renewal of a licence as they apply to the grant thereof.

16. Fees, etc., for licence.—The fees on payment of which, the conditions subject to which and the form in which a licence shall be granted or renewed shall be such as may be prescribed:

Provided that different fees, different conditions and different forms may be prescribed for different types of licences:

Provided further that a licence may contain in addition to prescribed conditions such other conditions as may be considered necessary by the licensing authority in any particular case.

17. Variation, suspension and revocation of licences.—(1) The licensing authority may vary the conditions subject to which a licence has been granted except such of them as have been prescribed and may for that purpose require the licence-holder by notice in writing to deliver-up the licence to it within such time as may be specified in the notice.

(2) The licensing authority may, on the application of the holder of a licence, also vary the conditions of the licence except such of them as have been prescribed.

(3) The licensing authority may by order in writing suspend a licence for such period as it thinks fit or revoke a licence—

- (a) if the licensing authority is satisfied that the holder of the licence is prohibited by this Act or by any other law for the time being in force, from acquiring, having in his possession or carrying any arms or ammunition, or is of unsound mind, or is for any reason unfit for a licence under this Act; or
- (b) if the licensing authority deems it necessary for the security of the public peace or for public safety to suspend or revoke the licence; or
- (c) if the licence was obtained by the suppression of material information or on the basis of wrong information provided by the holder of the licence or any other person on his behalf at the time of applying for it; or
- (d) if any of the conditions of the licence has been contravened; or
- (e) if the holder of the licence has failed to comply with a notice under sub-section (1) requiring him to deliver-up the licence.

(4) The licensing authority may also revoke a licence on the application of the holder thereof.

(5) Where the licensing authority makes an order varying a licence under sub-section (1) or an order suspending or revoking a licence under sub-section (3), it shall record in writing the reasons therefor and furnish to the holder of the licence on demand a brief statement of the same unless in any case the licensing authority is of the opinion that it will not be in the public interest to furnish such statement.

(6) The authority to whom the licensing authority is subordinate may by order in writing suspend or revoke a licence on any ground on which it may be suspended or revoked by the licensing authority; and the foregoing provisions of this section shall, as far as may be, apply in relation to the suspension or revocation of a licence by such authority.

(7) A court convicting the holder of a licence of any offence under this Act or the rules made thereunder may also suspend or revoke the licence:

Provided that if the conviction is set aside on appeal or otherwise, the suspension or revocation shall become void.

(8) An order of suspension or revocation under sub-section (7) may also be made by an appellate court or by the High Court when exercising its powers of revision.

(9) The Central Government may, by order in the Official Gazette, suspend or revoke or direct any licensing authority to suspend or revoke all or any licences granted under this Act throughout India or any part thereof.

(10) On the suspension or revocation of a licence under this section the holder thereof shall without delay surrender the licence to the authority by whom it has been suspended or revoked or to such other authority as may be specified in this behalf in the order of suspension or revocation.

COMMENTS

(i) One of the reasons inviting suspension/revocation of the arms licence can be like, getting proceeded against in a criminal offence; Kapildeo Singh v. State of Bihar, AIR 1987 Pat 122.

(ii) If it becomes quite apparent to the licensing authority that the possession of arms by the licensee is going to disturb or endanger 'public peace and safety', it can straightway and without any further enquiry, revoke/suspend such licence. But if the danger is not 'apparently immediate' and the licensing authority proceeds for further enquiry into the full facts, then it can't be done unless and until, the licensing authority is completely satisfied with its enquiry; Chhanga Prasad Sahu v. State of Uttar Pradesh, AIR 1986 All 142.

(iii) A licence-holder must be given an opportunity of hearing before revocation/suspension of his/her licence. If due to some unavoidable reasons, revocation/suspension of the arms licence is ordered, it is an obligation on the part of the licensing authority [as under section 2(f)] to allow a post-decisional hearing; Kailash Nath v. State of Uttar Pradesh, AIR 1985 All 291.

(iv) The power and jurisdiction of the licensing authority to initiate 'cancellation of licence' proceedings, has been vested with the A.D.M.; Lakhan Singh v. Commissioner, Jhansi Division, Jhansi, AIR 1984 All 122.

18. Appeals.—(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the licensing authority refusing to grant a licence or varying the conditions of a licence or by an order of the licensing authority or the authority to whom the licensing authority is subordinate, suspending or revoking a licence may prefer an appeal against that order to such authority (hereinafter referred to as the appellate authority) and within such period as may be prescribed:

Provided that no appeal shall lie against any order made by, or under the direction of the Government.

(2) No appeal shall be admitted if it is preferred after the expiry of the period prescribed therefor:

Provided that an appeal may be admitted after the expiry of the period prescribed therefor if the appellant satisfies the appellate authority that he had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within that period.

(3) The period prescribed for an appeal shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 (9 of 1908), with respect to the computation of periods of limitation thereunder.

(4) Every appeal under this section shall be made by a petition in writing and shall be accompanied by a brief statement of the reasons for the order appealed against where such statement has been furnished to the appellant and by such fee as may be prescribed.

(5) In disposing of an appeal the appellate authority shall follow such procedure as may be prescribed:

Provided that no appeal shall be disposed of unless the appellant has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(6) The order appealed against shall, unless the appellate authority conditionally or unconditionally directs otherwise, be in force pending the disposal of the appeal against such order.

(7) Every order of the appellate authority confirming, modifying or reversing the order appealed against shall be final.

COMMENTS

When an order for revocation or suspension of the arms licence is 'issued', the limitation period for filing an appeal well-in-time is "thirty days from the date of 'service' of such an order"; Chhatrapal v. Collector, Fatehpur, AIR 1989 All 73 (75).

CHAPTER IV

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to authorise the return or disposal of anything of which confiscation has been directed under section 32.

(3) All things deposited and not received back or disposed of under sub-section (2) within the period therein referred to shall be forfeited to Government by order of the district magistrate:

Provided that in the case of suspension of a licence no such forfeiture shall be ordered in respect of a thing covered by the licence during the period of suspension.

(4) Before making an order under sub-section (3) the district magistrate shall by notice in writing to be served upon the depositor or in the case of his death, upon his legal representative, in the prescribed manner, require him to show cause within thirty days from the service of the notice why the things specified in the notice should not be forfeited.

(5) After considering the cause, if any, shown by the depositor or as the case may be, his legal representative, the district magistrate shall pass such order as he thinks fit.

(6) The Government may at any time return to the depositor or his legal representative things forfeited to it or the proceeds of disposal thereof wholly or in part.

22. Search and seizure by magistrate.—(1) Whenever any magistrate has reason to believe—

- (a) that any person residing within the local limits of his jurisdiction has in his possession any arms or ammunition for any unlawful purpose, or
- (b) that such person cannot be left in the possession of any arms or ammunition without danger to the public peace or safety, the magistrate may, after having recorded the reasons for his belief, cause a search to be made of the house or premises occupied by such person or in which the magistrate has reason to believe that such arms or ammunition are or is to be found and may have such arms or ammunition, if any, seized and detain the same in safe custody for such period as he thinks necessary, although that person may be entitled by virtue of this Act or any other law for the time being in force to have the same in his possession.

(2) Every search under this section shall be conducted by or in the presence of a magistrate or by or in the presence of some officer specially empowered in this behalf by the Central Government.

23. Search of vessels, vehicles for arms, etc.—Any magistrate, any police officer or any other officer specially empowered in this behalf by the Central Government, may for the purpose of ascertaining whether any contravention of this Act or the rules made thereunder is being or is likely to be committed, stop and search any vessel, vehicle or other means of conveyance and seize any arms or ammunition that may be found therein alongwith such vessel, vehicle or other means of conveyance.

24. Seizure and detention under orders of the Central Government.—The Central Government may at any time order the seizure of any arms or ammunition in the possession of any person, notwithstanding that such person is entitled by virtue of this Act or any other law for the time being in force to have the same in his possession, and may detain the same for such period as it thinks necessary for the public peace and safety.

¹[24A. Prohibition as to possession of notified arms in disturbed areas, etc.—(1) Where the Central Government is satisfied that there is extensive disturbance of public peace and tranquillity or imminent danger of such disturbance in any area and that for the prevention of offences involving the use of arms in such area, it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may by notification in the Official Gazette—
