The Wages Code, 2019¹

[Act 29 of 2019]

[8th August, 2019]

An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to wages and bonus and matters connected therewith or incidental thereto

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Seventieth Year of the Republic of India as follows—

Statement of Objects and Reasons.—The Second National Commission on Labour, which submitted its report in June, 2002, had recommended that the existing set of labour laws should be broadly amalgamated into the following groups, namely—

- (a) industrial relations;
- (b) wages;
- (c) social security;
- (d) safety; and
- (e) welfare and working conditions.

2. In pursuance of the recommendations of the said Commission and the deliberations made in the tripartite meeting comprising of the Government, employers' and industry representatives, it has been decided to bring the proposed legislation. The proposed legislation intends to amalgamate, simplify and rationalise the relevant provisions of the following four central labour enactments relating to wages, namely—

- (a) the Payment of Wages Act, 1936;
- (b) the Minimum Wages Act, 1948;
- (c) the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965; and
- (d) the Equal Remuneration Act, 1976.

3. The amalgamation of the said laws will facilitate the implementation and also remove the multiplicity of definitions and authorities without compromising on the basic concepts of welfare and benefits to workers. The proposed legislation would bring the use of technology in its enforcement. All these measures would bring transparency and accountability which would lead to more effective enforcement. Widening the scope of minimum wages to all workers would be a big step for equity. The facilitation for ease of compliance of labour laws will promote in setting up of more enterprises thus catalyzing the creation of employment opportunities.

4. The salient features of the Code on Wages, 2019, inter alia, are as follows—

- (a) it provides for all essential elements relating to wages, equal remuneration, its payment and bonus;
- (b) the provisions relating to wages shall be applicable to all employments covering both organised as well as un-organised sectors;
- (c) the power to fix minimum wages continues to be vested in the Central Government as well the State Government in their respective sphere;
- (d) it enables the appropriate Government to determine the factors by which the minimum wages shall be fixed for different category of employees. The factors shall be determined taking into account the skills required, the arduousness of the work assigned, geographical location of the workplace and other aspects which the appropriate Government considers necessary;

- (e) the provisions relating to timely payment of wages and authorised deductions from wages, which are presently applicable only in respect of employees drawing wages of twenty-four thousand rupees per month, shall be made applicable to all employees irrespective of wage ceiling. The appropriate Government may extend the coverage of such provisions to the Government establishments also;
- (f) it provides that the wages to employees may also be paid by cheque or through digital or electronic mode or by crediting it in the bank account of the employee. However, the appropriate Government may specify the industrial or other establishment, where the wages are to be paid only by cheque or through digital or electronic mode or by crediting the wages in the bank account of the employee;
- (g) it provides for floor wage for different geographical areas so as to ensure that no State Government fixes the minimum wage below the floor wage notified for that area by the Central Government;
- (h) in order to remove the arbitrariness and malpractices in inspection, it empowers the appropriate Government to appoint Inspectors-cum-Facilitators in the place of Inspectors, who would supply information and advice the employers and workers;
- (i) it empowers the appropriate Government to determine the ceiling of wage limit for the purpose of eligibility of bonus and calculation of bonus;
- (j) in the place of number of authorities at multiple levels, it empowers the appropriate Government to appoint one or more authorities to hear and decide the claims under the proposed legislation;
- (k) it enables the appropriate Government to establish an appellate authority to hear appeals for speedy, cheaper and efficient redressal of grievances and settlement of claims;
- (l) it provides for graded penalty for different types of contraventions of the provisions of the proposed legislation;
- (m) it provides that the Inspector-cum-Facilitator shall give an opportunity to the employer before initiation of prosecution proceedings in cases of contravention, so as to comply with the provisions of the proposed legislation. However, in case of repetition of the contravention within a period of five years such opportunity shall not be provided;
- (n) it provides for the appointment of officers not below the rank of Under Secretary to the Government of India or an officer of equivalent level in the State Government to dispose of cases punishable only with fine up to fifty thousand rupees, so as to reduce the burden on subordinate judiciary;
- (o) it provides for compounding of those offences which are not punishable with imprisonment;
- (p) it provides that where a claim has been filed for non-payment of remuneration or bonus or less payment of wages or bonus or on account of making deduction not authorised by the proposed legislation, the burden shall be on the employer to prove that the said dues have been paid to the employee;
- (q) it enables the appropriate Government to constitute Advisory Boards at Central and State level to advise the Central Government and the State Governments, respectively, on matters relating to wages, women employment, etc.;
- (r) the period of limitation for filing of claims by a worker has been enhanced to three years, as against the existing time period varying from six months to two years, to provide a worker more time to settle his claims.

5. The Code on Wages, 2017, on similar lines, was introduced and referred to the Department-related Parliamentary Standing Committee on Labour, which submitted its forty-third Report on 18th December, 2018. However, before the said Bill could be passed in the said House, it lapsed on dissolution of the Sixteenth Lok Sabha. Hence, the Code on Wages, 2019.

6. The Notes on Clauses explain in detail the various provisions contained in the Bill.

7. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

8. Procedure for fixing and revising minimum wages.—(1) In fixing minimum rates of wages for the first time or in revising minimum rates of wages under this Code, the appropriate Government shall either—

- (a) appoint as many committees as it considers necessary to hold enquiries and recommend in respect of such fixation or revision, as the case may be; or
- (b) by notification publish its proposals for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby and specify a date not less than two months from the date of the notification on which the proposals shall be taken into consideration.

Corresponding Law: S. 5(1) of MWA, 1948.

(2) Every committee appointed by the appropriate Government under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall consist of persons—

- (a) representing employers;
- (b) representing employees which shall be equal in number of the members specified in clause (a); and
- (c) independent persons, not exceeding one-third of the total members of the committee.

(3) After considering the recommendation of the committee appointed under clause (a) of sub-section (1) or, as the case may be, all representations received by it before the date specified in the notification under clause (b) of that sub-section, the appropriate Government shall by notification fix, or as the case may be, revise the minimum rates of wages and unless such notification otherwise provides, it shall come into force on the expiry of three months from the date of its issue;

Provided that where the appropriate Government proposes to revise the minimum rates of wages in the manner specified in clause (b) of sub-section (1), it shall also consult concerned Advisory Board constituted under Section 42.

Corresponding Law: S. 5(2) of MWA, 1948.

(4) The appropriate Government shall review or revise minimum rates of wages ordinarily at an interval not exceeding five years.

CASE LAW ▶ Classification/categorization of unskilled employees.—There is no power vested in the Government by Minimum Wages Act, 1948 to make alterations to the terms of a contract. The 1948 Act only confers jurisdiction on Government to fix/revise minimum rate of wages notwithstanding the contract. Categorisation/classification by deeming workers in one category to belong to other category on achieving stipulated years of experience is in direct contravention of contract between employer and employee and beyond jurisdiction of Government, Hindustan Sanitaryware & Industries Ltd. v. State of Haryana, (2019) 15 SCC 774.

▶ Notification issued by Government revising minimum rates of wages.—Inclusion of security inspector/security officer/supervisor in notification is ultra vires since they are not "employee" in terms of Section 2(i) of Minimum Wages Act, 1948 because they are not engaged in skilled/unskilled/manual or clerical work, Hindustan Sanitaryware & Industries Ltd. v. State of Haryana, (2019) 15 SCC 774.

Trainees who are employed without payment of any reward cannot be covered by notification. Further, period of training to be undergone by trainee would depend on contract of employment and fixing training period for one year is beyond jurisdiction of Government, Hindustan Sanitaryware & Industries Ltd. v. State of Haryana, (2019) 15 SCC 774.

There is no distinction between employee employed by principal employer and one employed by contractor and as such employees employed by contractor would also come within purview of the Act, Hindustan Sanitaryware & Industries Ltd. v. State of Haryana, (2019) 15 SCC 774.

Prohibition of segregation of wages into components in form of allowances in notification impermissible, Hindustan Sanitaryware & Industries Ltd. v. State of Haryana, (2019) 15 SCC 774.

9. Power of Central Government to fix floor wage.—(1) The Central Government shall fix floor wage taking into account minimum living standards of a worker in such manner as may be prescribed:

Wages of employee who works for less than normal working day.— If an employee whose minimum rate of wages has been fixed under this Code by the day works on any day on which he was employed for a period of less than the requisite number of hours constituting a normal working day, he shall, save as otherwise hereinafter provided, be entitled to receive wages in respect of work done on that day, as if he had worked for a full normal working day:

Provided that he shall not be entitled to receive wages for a full normal working day,—

- (i) in any case where his failure to work is caused by his unwillingness to work and not by the omission of the employer to provide him with work; and
- (ii) in such other cases and circumstances, as may be prescribed.

Corresponding Law: S. 15 of MWA, 1948.

Corresponding Law: S. 16 of MWA, 1948.

12. Minimum time rate wages for piece work.—Where a person is employed on piece work for which minimum time rate and not a minimum piece rate has been fixed under this Code, the employer shall pay to such person wages at not less than the minimum time rate.

Corresponding Law: S. 17 of MWA, 1948.

(3) For the purposes of clause (c) of sub-section (2), employment of an employee is essentially intermittent when it is declared to be so by the appropriate Government on the ground that the daily hours of duty of the employee, or if there be no daily hours of duty as such for the employee, the hours of duty normally include periods of inaction during which the employee may be on duty but is not called upon to display either physical activity or sustained attention.

Corresponding Law: S. 13 of MWA, 1948.

14. Wages for overtime work.—Where an employee whose minimum rate of wages has been fixed under this Code by the hour, by the day or by such a longer wage-period as may be prescribed, works on any day in excess of the number of hours constituting a normal working day, the employer shall pay him for every hour or for part of an hour so worked in excess, at the overtime rate which shall not be less than twice the normal rate of wages.

Corresponding Law: S. 14(1) of MWA, 1948.
