The National Highways Authority of India Act, 1988¹

[Act 68 of 1988]

[16th December, 1988]

An Act to provide for the constitution of an Authority for the development, maintenance and management of national highways and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Statement of Objects and Reasons.—The development and maintenance of national highways is fully financed by the Central Government as this function comes within Entry 23 of the Union List of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution. Further, Section 5 of the National Highways Act, 1956 provides that the Central Government may direct that any function in relation to the development or maintenance of national highways shall also be exercisable, among others, by any officer or authority subordinate to the Central Government. Under this provision, the function of execution of the activities including survey, investigations and preparation of projects on national highways have been delegated to the respective State Governments. The Central Government retaining the activities pertaining to planning, approval of design and estimates, monitoring, etc. This system is commonly known as the 'Agency System' since the State Governments are paid 'Agency Charges' incurred by them on works executed on the national highway system.

2. Though the 'Agency System' of execution of national highway works by the State Public Works Departments has been functioning for a period of about 40 years, difficulties have been experienced from time to time.

3. Since the Central Government have no direct administrative control over the executing agency, there have been instances when the Central Government had to remain helpless in case a State Government overlooked the acts of omission or commission on the part of its staff engaged in the construction and maintenance of national highways. This has resulted in anomalous situations where the Central Government, being constitutionally responsible for the development and maintenance of national highways had to defend actions of State Governments in various forums, including Parliament. Similarly the Centre generally has no role in fixation and operation of even major contracts arbitration cases, payment of compensation to contractors, etc. over and above the original contract amounts and other items resulting in direct financial commitment of Central funds.

4. Under the circumstances, the only, alternative is for the Centre to take over development and maintenance of the national highway system through the creation of an autonomous National Highways Authority. It is proposed that this Authority should take over, in a phased manner the functions presently being performed by the State Public Works Departments.

5. The main functions of the Authority would be to develop and maintain national highways whose management and operation is vested in the Central Government.

Some of the salient features of the Bill are—

1. Received the assent of the President on December 16, 1988 and published in the Gaz. of India, Extra., Part II, Section 1, dated 19th December, 1988, pp. 1-12. [W][P].

- (a) the Authority, which will be a functional body, will consist of a Chairman and not more than five full time members to be appointed by the Central Government. The Central Government may also appoint not more than four part-time members;
 - (b) the Central Government is being empowered to vest in, or entrust to, the Authority such national highways or any stretch thereof, as are vested at present in that Government under Section 4 of the National Highways Act, 1956;
 - (c) any land required by the Authority for discharging its functions will be deemed to be land needed for a public purpose and such land may be acquired for the Authority under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 or any corresponding law for the time being in force;
 - (d) the authority will have powers to enter into and perform any contract up to a certain value which will be prescribed by the Central Government;
 - (e) the Central Government will provide funds to the Authority for the discharge of its functions;
 - (f) the Authority will be responsible for the development, maintenance and management, of the national highways which are vested in it by the Central Government; and residential buildings for its employees and construct way-side amenities near the national highways vested in it;
 - (h) the Authority will, on behalf of the Government, be empowered to collect fees for services or benefits rendered by it under Section 7 of the National Highways Act, 1956;
 - (i) for the proper management of highways, the Authority will regulate and control the plying of vehicles on the highways vested in it;
 - (j) with the approval of the Central Government, the Authority will raise funds through the floating of bonds, issue of debentures, etc.
6. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

Statement of Objects and Reasons of Amending Act 19 of 2013.—Section 3 of the National Highways Authority of India Act, 1988 provides for constitution of the National Highways Authority of India for the development, maintenance and management of national highways and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. As per sub-section (3) of the said section, the authority shall consist of (i) a Chairman; (ii) not more than five full-time members; and (iii) not more than four part-time members. Keeping in view the vastly increased mandate for National Highways Authority of India and also the greatly enhanced participation envisaged for the private sector, it is proposed to amend sub-section (3) of Section 3 to increase the strength of full-time members from five to six and part-time members from four to six to allow induction of professionals of repute in the fields of financial management, transportation planning and other relevant areas. Induction of outside professionals will enhance the capacity of the Authority to take strategic decision, widen its perspective, bring in the best management practices, and assist in achieving the goal of higher private participation.

2. Earlier, the National Highways Authority of India (Amendment) Bill, 2008 to give effect to the proposal in the preceding paragraph was introduced in the Lok Sabha on the 22nd December, 2008 which lapsed due to dissolution of the Fourteenth Lok Sabha. It is now proposed to re-introduce the Bill on the lines of earlier Bill introduced.

3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

- (a) has been convicted and sentenced to imprisonment for an offence which, in the opinion of the Central Government, involves moral turpitude; or
- (b) is an undischarged insolvent; or
- (c) is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent Court; or
- (d) has been removed or dismissed from the service of the Government or a Corporation owned or controlled by the Government; or

10. Authority to act on business principles.—In the discharge of its functions under this Act, the Authority shall act, so far as may be, on business principles.

CHAPTER III

PROPERTY AND CONTRACTS

11. Power of the Central Government to vest or entrust any national highway in the Authority.—The Central Government may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, vest in, or entrust to, the Authority, such national highway or any stretch thereof as may be specified in such notification.

CASE LAW ► Applicability.—Central Government's notification under Section 11 entrusted highways to NHAI. Consequently, status of State Government as an executing agency in respect of a portion of the highway, pursuant to delegation notification issued by Central Government under Section 5 of the Highways Act, came to an end. While acting as executing agency, State Government had granted contract/franchise to respondent to collect toll charges for one year in respect of the portion of the highway and subsequently passed an uncommunicated memorandum extending the period of the contract for a long term, which had no legal force, effect or authority. After expiry of the contractual period of one year and thereafter entrustment of the said portion of the highway to NHAI held, respondent had no subsisting rights to continue to operate on the basis of the said memorandum, nor Central Government nor NHAI had incurred any obligation or liability thereby under Section 12(1)(a) of the Highways Act, State of W.B. v. M.R. Mondal, (2001) 8 SCC 443.

► Duty of NHAI.—In case of statutory contracts, terms of the statute prevail over the terms of the contract. Consequently, NHAI being an agency of the Central Government in terms of NHAI Act, has to incorporate the views and discussions of Central Government in the terms and conditions of agreements with contracting parties/signatories. However, once the contract validly stands concluded and signed by the contracting parties, opinion of Central Government cannot prevail over the terms and conditions of the contract in the absence of any statutory violation, so as to strike down the clause in the agreement, Soma Isolux NH One Tollway (P) Ltd. v. Harish Kumar Puri, (2014) 6 SCC 75.

12. Transfer of assets and liabilities of the Central Government to the Authority.—(1) On and from the date of publication of the notification under Section 11,—

- (a) all debts, obligations and liabilities incurred, all contracts entered into and all matters and things engaged to be done by, with, or for, the Central Government, immediately before such date for or in connection with the purposes of any national highway or any stretch thereof vested in, or entrusted to, the Authority under that section, shall be deemed to have been incurred, entered into and engaged to be done by, with, or for, the Authority;

- (b) all non-recurring expenditure incurred by or for the Central Government for or in connection with the purposes of any national highway or any stretch thereof, so vested in, or entrusted to, the Authority, up to such date and declared to be capital expenditure by the Central Government shall, subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, be treated as capital provided by the Central Government to the Authority;
- (c) all sums of money due to the Central Government in relation to any national highway or any stretch thereof, so vested in, or entrusted to, the Authority immediately before such date shall be deemed to be due to the Authority;
- (d) all suits and other legal proceedings instituted or which could have been instituted by or against the Central Government immediately before such date for any matter in relation to such national highway or any stretch thereof may be continued or instituted by or against the Authority.

(2) If any dispute arises as to which of the assets, rights or liabilities of the Central Government have been transferred to the Authority, such dispute shall be decided by the Central Government.

13. Compulsory acquisition of land for the Authority.—Any land required by the Authority for discharging its functions under this Act shall be deemed to be land needed for a public purpose and such land may be acquired for the Authority under the provisions of the ³[National Highways Act, 1956 (48 of 1956)].

14. Contracts by the Authority.—Subject to the provisions of Section 15, the Authority shall be competent to enter into and perform any contract necessary for the discharge of its functions under this Act.

15. Mode of executing contracts on behalf of the Authority.—(1) Every contract shall, on behalf of the Authority, be made by the Chairman or such other member or such officer of the Authority as may be generally or specially empowered in this behalf by the Authority and such contracts or classes of contracts as may be specified in the regulations shall be sealed with the common seal of the Authority:

Provided that no contract exceeding such value or amount as the Central Government may prescribe in this behalf shall be made unless it has been previously approved by that Government:

Provided further that no contract for the acquisition or sale of immovable property or for the lease of any such property for a term exceeding thirty years and no other contract exceeding such value or amount as the Central Government may prescribe in this behalf shall be made unless it has been previously approved by that Government.

3. Subs. by Act 16 of 1997, S. 6 (w.e.f. 24-1-1997).

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), the form and manner in which any contract shall be made under this Act shall be such as may be provided by regulations.

(3) No contract which is not in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the regulations shall be binding on the Authority.

CHAPTER IV

CASE LAW ▶ Interconnected powers and duties.—Where powers and duties are interconnected and it is not possible to separate one from the other, in such case the powers may be delegated while duties are retained and vice versa, the delegation of powers takes with it the duties, Syed Shah v. Commr. of Wakfs,

W.B., (1961) 3 SCR 759; also see State of Bombay v. Shivbalak, (1965) 1 SCR 211; Daluram v. Asstt. Commr., (1964) 2 SCR 286.

CASE LAW ► Good faith defined.—The words "good faith" are not defined in the Act. They are, however, defined in other Acts.

Nothing is said to be done or believed in good faith which is done or believed without due care and attention—Section 52 of the IPC.

A thing shall be deemed to be done in good faith where it is done honestly, whether it is done negligently or not—Section 3(22) of the General Clauses Act, 1897.

Nothing shall be deemed to be done in good faith which is not done with due care and attention—Section 2(7) of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908.

Good faith in criminal law is different from good faith as understood in civil law. If an act is not done with due care and attention, it cannot so far as criminal law is concerned be said to be done in good faith, Pagla Baba v. State, AIR 1957 Ori 130 : 1957 Cri LJ 769.

Nothing can be said to have been done in good faith when it is done without due care and caution, Public Prosecutor v. Rajammal, 12 Cri LJ 566 : 12 IC 654.

31. Power of the Central Government to temporarily divest the Authority of the management of any national highway.—(1) If, at any time, the Central Government is of opinion that in the public interest it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, direct the Authority to entrust the development, maintenance or management of any national highway or a part thereof with effect from such date and for such period and to such person as may be specified in the order and the Authority shall be bound to comply with such direction.

(6) On the cesser of operation of any order made under sub-section (1) in relation to any national highway or part thereof, the authorised person shall hand over to the Authority any property (including any sum of money or other asset) remaining with him in connection with the management of such national highway or part thereof.

CASE LAW ► Violation of Equality Clause.—Where the regulations are changed for particular cases, there will be violation of Equality Clause. Ram Prasad v. State of Bihar, AIR 1953 SC 215 : 1953 SCR 1129 : 1953 SCA 578 : 32 Pat 375 : 8 DLR (SC) 289 : 1953 BLJR 318.

► Force of law.—Rules and regulations have the force of law. Therefore, writ of mandamus will be available against administrative or quasi-judicial authority, which refuses to follow the rules. State of U.P. v. Baburam, AIR 1961 SC 751 : (1961) 2 SCR 679.

The rules and regulations do not lose their character as rules and regulations, even though they are to be of the same effect as if contained in the Act. They continue to be rules subordinate to the Act, and though for certain purposes, including the purpose of construction, they are to be treated as if contained in the Act, their true nature as subordinate rules is not lost. Therefore, with regard to the effect of a repeal of the Act, they continue to be subject to the operation of Section 24 of the General Clauses Act. Chief Inspector Mines v. K.C. Thapar, AIR 1961 SC 838 : (1962) 1 SCR 9 : (1961) 2 SCA 86 : 1961 (2) Cri LJ 1 : 1961 SCD 571 : (1961-62) 20 FJR 282 : 1961 BLJR 573 : (1961) 2 Lab LJ 146 : 1961 (3) FLR 241.

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiration of two years from the commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament.

37. Rules and regulations to be laid before Parliament.—Every rule and every regulation made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or regulation or both Houses agree that the rule or regulation should not be made, the rule or regulation shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or regulation.
