The Official Languages Act, 1963

[Act 19 of 1963]

[10th May, 1963]

An Act to provide for the languages which may be used for the official purposes of the Union, for transaction of business in Parliament, for Central and State Acts and for certain purposes in High Courts

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Fourteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

Statement of Objects and Reasons.—The Committee constituted under Cl. (4) of Article 344 of the Constitution to examine the recommendations of the Commission constituted under clause (1) thereof expressed the opinion that the complete change-over to Hindi by 26th January, 1965 was not practicable and that the provision should be made in pursuance of clause (3) of Art. 343 of the Constitution for the continued use of English even after 1965 for purposes to be specified by Parliament by law for as long as may be necessary. During the debate on the Report of the Committee, the Prime Minister made a speech on the 4th September, 1959 indicating broadly the approach of the Government to the official language question. After considering the Report of the Committee, the President issued directions on the 27th April, 1960 in the exercise of powers conferred on him by clause (6) of Article 344 in which a reference was made to the speech of the Prime Minister. In order to give effect to the policy of the Government as indicated by the Prime Minister, it is proposed to provide for the continued use of the English language, in addition to Hindi, for official purposes of the Union and for the transaction of business in Parliament after the 26th January, 1965.

2. The Bill also seeks to make provision by law for certain other matters covered by the Presidential order, namely, (a) authorised Hindi translation of Central Acts, Ordinances and other statutory instruments and Bills or amendments to be introduced or moved in Parliament; (b) publication of a Hindi translation of State Acts and Ordinances; and (c) for the use optionally of Hindi and other official languages of States for purposes of judgments, decrees and orders of High Courts with the previous consent of the President.

Statement of Objects and Reasons of Amending Act 1 of 1968.—The Official Languages Act was enacted in May, 1963. Section 3 of the Act provides for continued use of the English language in addition to Hindi, for all the official purposes of the Union for which it was being used immediately before the 26th January, 1965. It is, however, considered necessary to give statutory recognition to assurances of the late Prime Minister regarding the continued use of the English language as long as the non-Hindi-speaking people did not desire a change. It is also proposed to provide for the obligatory use of English language in addition to Hindi in certain cases.

- 1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Official Languages Act, 1963.
- (2) Section 3 shall come into force on the 26th day of January, 1965 and the remaining provisions of this Act shall come into force on such date¹ as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act.

- 2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
 - (a) "appointed day", in relation to Section 3, means the 26th day of January, 1965 and in relation to any other provision of this Act, means the day on which that provision comes into force;
 - (b) "Hindi" means Hindi in Devanagari Script.
- ²[3. Continuation of English language for official purposes of the Union and for use in Parliament.—(1) Notwithstanding the expiration of the period of fifteen years from the commencement of the Constitution, the English language may, as from the appointed day, continue to be used, in addition to Hindi,—
 - (a) for all the official purposes of the Union for which it was being used immediately before that day; and
 - (b) for the transaction of business in Parliament:

Provided that the English language shall be used for purposes of communication between the Union and a State which has not adopted Hindi as its Official Language:

Provided further that where Hindi is used for purposes of communication between one State which has adopted Hindi as its official language and another State which has not adopted Hindi as its official language, such communication in Hindi shall be accompanied by a translation of the same in the English language:

Provided also that nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as preventing a State which has not adopted Hindi as its official language from using Hindi for purposes of communication with the Union or with a State which has adopted Hindi as its official language, or by agreement with any other state, and in such a case, it shall not be obligatory to use the English language for purposes of communication with that State.

- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where Hindi or the English language is used for purposes of communication—
 - (i) between one Ministry or Department or office of the Central Government and another;
 - (ii) between one Ministry or Department or office of the Central Government and any corporation or company owned or controlled by the Central Government or any office thereof;
 - (iii) between any corporation or company owned or controlled by the Central Government or any office thereof and another translation of such communication in the English language or, as the case may be in Hindi shall also be provided till such date as the staff of the concerned Ministry, Department, office or corporation or company aforesaid have acquired a working knowledge of Hindi.

^{2.} Subs. by Act 1 of 1968, S. 2 (w.e.f. 8-1-1968).

- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) both Hindi and the English languages shall be used for—
 - (i) resolutions, general orders, rules, notifications, administrative or other reports or press communiques issued or made by the Central Government or by a Ministry, Department or office thereof or by a corporation or company owned or controlled by the Central Government or by any office of such corporation or company;
 - (ii) administrative and other reports and official papers laid before a House or the Houses of Parliament;
 - (iii) contracts and agreements executed, and licences, permits, notices and forms of tender issued, by or on behalf of the Central Government or any Ministry, Department or office thereof or by a corporation or company owned or controlled by the Central Government or by any office of such corporation or company.
- (4) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) the Central Government may, by rules made under Section 8, provide for the language or languages to be used for the official purpose of the Union, including the working of any Ministry, Department, section or office, and in making such rules, due consideration shall be given to the quick and efficient disposal of the official business and the interests of the general public and in particular, the rules so made shall ensure that persons serving in connection with the affairs of the Union and having proficiency either in Hindi or in the English language may function effectively and that they are not placed at a disadvantage on the ground that they do not have proficiency in both the languages.
- (5) The provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (1), and the provisions of sub-section (2), sub-section (3) and sub-section (4) shall remain in force until resolutions for the discontinuance of the use of the English language for the purposes mentioned therein have been passed by the Legislatures of all the States which have not adopted Hindi as their official language and until after considering the resolution aforesaid, a resolution for such discontinuance has been passed by each House of Parliament.]

CASE Law ► Use of Hindi.—Presidential Order dated 27-04-1960 and Orders of Railway Board and P and T Department making "in service training in Hindi" compulsory is not in conflict with Section 3(4). Union of India v. Murasoli Maran, (1977) 2 SCC 416.

English not prohibited.—Provision does not prohibit English to be regarded as a compulsory subject in any departmental examination or for that matter in any examination, Raghvendra Prasad Gautam v. Union Bank of India, (1999) 1 MPLJ 42.

Urdu not mandatory.—Central Government is not under obligation under law to direct the printing and receiving of forms and carry out the work in Urdu in its offices in the State of U.P., U.P. Urdu Development Organisation v. Government of India, (2002) 49 ALR 300.

English in Parliament.—Article 348 of the Constitution clearly provides English to be the authoritative text in respect of Acts of Parliament, and amendments to Acts subject to any law made by Parliament. From a conjoint reading of Article 348 of the Constitution and Sections 3 and 5 of the Official Languages Act, 1963, English continues to remain the authoritative text in respect of Acts of Parliament, Prabhat Kumar Sharma v. Union Public Service Commission, (2006) 10 SCC 587.

Minimum qualifying marks in English.—Promotion policy of Union Bank of India for promotion from clerical cadre to officer cadre in Junior Management Grade Scale I and stipulation of 35% minimum qualifying marks in English in the written test for being placed in provisional select list is not expecting a candidate of being proficient in English but must be efficient and to have a workable knowledge of English does not violate the mandate of Section 3(4) of the Official Languages Act, Raghvendra Prasad Gautam v. Union Bank of India, (2010) 4 MPLJ 466 (MP) (FB).

- 4. Committee on Official Language.—(1) After the expiration of ten years from the date on which Section 3 comes into force, there shall be constituted a Committee on Official Language, on a resolution to that effect being moved in either House of Parliament with the previous sanction of the President and passed by both Houses.
- (2) The Committee shall consist of thirty members, of whom twenty shall be members of the House of the People and ten shall be members of the Council of States, to be elected respectively by the members of the House of the People and the members of the Council of States in accordance with the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the Committee to review the progress made in the use of Hindi for the official purposes made in the use of Hindi for the official purpose of the Union and submit a report to the President making recommendations thereon and the President shall cause the report to be laid before each House of Parliament, and sent to all the State Governments.
- (4) The President may, after consideration of the report referred to in sub-section (3), and the views, if any, expressed by the State Government thereon, issue directions in accordance with the whole or any part of that report:

³[Provided that the direction so issued shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of Section 3.]

- 5. Authorised Hindi translation of Central Acts, etc.—(1) A translation in Hindi published under the authority of the President in the Official Gazette on and after the appointed day—
 - (a) of any Central Act or of any Ordinance promulgated by the President, or
 - (b) of any order, rule, regulation or bye-law issued under the Constitution or under any Central Act, shall be deemed to be the authoritative text thereof in Hindi.

(2) As from the appointed day, the authoritative text in the English language of all Bills to be introduced or amendments thereto to be moved in either House of Parliament shall be accompanied by a translation of the same in Hindi authorised in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act.

^{3.} Ins. by Act 1 of 1968, S. 3 (w.e.f. 8-1-1968).

- 6. Authorised Hindi translation of State Acts in certain cases.—Where the Legislature of a State has prescribed any language other than Hindi for use in Acts passed by the Legislature of the State or in Ordinances promulgated by the Governor of the State, a translation of the same in Hindi, in addition to a translation thereof in the English language as required by clause (3) of Article 348 of the Constitution, may be published on or after the appointed day under the authority of the Governor of the State in the Official Gazette of that State and in such a case, the translation in Hindi or any such Act or Ordinance shall be deemed to be the authoritative text thereof in the Hindi language.
- 7. Optional use of Hindi or other official language in judgments etc., of High Courts.—As from the appointed day or any day thereafter the Governor of a State may, with the previous consent of the President, authorise the use of Hindi or the official language of the State, in addition to the English language, for the purposes of any judgment, decree or order passed or made by the High Court for that State and where any judgment, decree or order is passed or made in any such language (other than the English language), it shall be accompanied by a translation of the same in the English language issued under the authority of the High Court.
- CASE LAW ➤ Official language of State.—Governor of a State is entitled, with previous consent of President, to authorise use of Hindi or official language of State in addition to English language for purposes of any judgment, decree or order passed or made by High Court for that State, Solai Subramanian v. T.N State Govt., 2014 SCC OnLine Mad 3157: (2014) 4 CTC 821 (Mad) (DB).
- 8. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Every rule made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two ⁴[or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid], both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.
- 9. Certain provisions not to apply to Jammu and Kashmir.—The provisions of Section 6 and Section 7 shall not apply to the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir.—In its application to the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir, omit Section 9. [Vide S.O. 1123(E), dated 18-3-2020 (w.e.f. 18-3-2020)].

Union Territory of Ladakh.—In its application to the Union Territory of Ladakh — Same as that of UT of Jammu and Kashmir. [Vide S.O. 3774(E), dated 23-10-2020].
