HIGH COURT OF TRIPURA AGARTALA

THE GENDER SENSITISATION & SEXUAL HARASSMENT OF WOMEN AT THE HIGH COURT AND THE DISTRICT COURTS OF TRIPURA (PREVENTION, PROHIBITION AND REDRESSAL) REGULATIONS, 2013

WHEREAS Gender discrimination and Sexual harassment results in violation of the fundamental right of a woman to equality under Articles 14 and 15 of the Constitution of India and her right to life and to live with dignity under Article 21 of the Constitution of India and right to practice any profession or to carry on any occupation, trade or business which includes a right to a safe environment free from sexual harassment under Article 19(1)(g) of the Constitution of India;

AND WHEREAS sensitisation against discrimination on basis of gender and the protection against sexual harassment and the right to work with dignity are universally recognized human rights by international conventions and instruments such as Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women, which has been ratified on the 25th June, 1993 by the Government of India:

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to make provisions for giving effect to the Constitution of India and the said Convention for protection of women against sexual harassment at High Court of Tripura and the District courts of Tripura precincts:-

AND WHEREAS it is necessary to provide for gender sensitisation in working environment and protection against sexual harassment of women at the High Court precincts and the District courts precincts of Tripura and for the prevention and redressal of complaints of sexual harassment and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto;

AND WHEREAS according to the decision in Vishaka vs. State of Rajasthan rendered by the Supreme Court in its judgment dated 13 August 1997, in Writ Petition (Crl) No. 666-70/92 it is necessary to provide for the protection of women.

AND WHEREAS in the judgment of the Supreme Court in Medha Kotwal Lele vs. Union of India & Others, rendered by the Supreme Court on 19 October 2012 reported in (2013) 1 SCC 297, the necessity of protecting women from any form of indecency, indignity and disrespect in all places (in their homes as well as outside), is emphasized and it has been directed to provide new initiatives of education and advancement of women and girls in all spheres of life and the further directions given in the said judgment including the directions with regard to the need to give instructions/circulars by all statutory bodies such as the Bar Council of India, Bar Associations and State Bar Councils, and the liberty granted in the said judgment to approach the respective courts and the directions to the courts to effectively consider the grievances raised in this regard.

AND WHEREAS following upon and in conformity with the above, in Writ Petition (Civil) No. 162 of 2013, Ms Binu Tamta & Ors. v. High Court of Delhi, the Supreme Court of India appointed a committee for framing regulations to ensure a safe working environment for women in the precincts of the Supreme Court, and the said committee having framed regulations to combat the problem of sexual harassment within the precincts of the Supreme Court of India and for their redressal of any complaint that may be filed in that regard;

AND WHEREAS the draft regulations being placed before the Supreme Court of India on 03 July 2013 and the Supreme Court directing for further consideration of the regulations by the parties concerned and the Attorney General of India.

AND WHEREAS upon consideration of all the views placed before the Court, the Supreme Court by order dated 17 July 2013 was pleased to approve the said regulations and authorize the issuance of the same and order the enforcement of the Regulations inter alia having regard to the aforesaid judgments and in terms of Article 142 of the Constitution of India to render full and complete justice.

AND WHEREAS the Supreme Court of India in the said Order dated 17-07-2013 in the above referred Writ Petition (Civil) No. 162 of 2013 directed all the High Courts to formulate their own Regulations in the same manner, in order to contain harassment of Woman in the High Court Premises and also in the District Courts Premises of the State.

If a Member does not attend 3 consecutive meetings he/she shall be liable to removal forthwith by the Chief Justice or the District & Sessions Judge as the case may be, and the vacancy so created shall be filled in accordance with Regulation.

7. Functions of the Gender Sensitization & Internal Complaints Committee -

(1) The concerned GSICC shall be responsible for framing a Policy from time to time and its implementation with regard to gender sensitization and prevention and redressal of Sexual Harassment in the High Court or in the District Courts of Tripura as the case may be.

(2) Gender Sensitization and Orientation: The concerned GSICC shall take the following steps with regard to gender sensitization and orientation:

(i) GSICC will ensure the prominent publicity of the Policy on gender sensitization and prevention and redressal of Sexual Harassment in the High Court or in the District Courts precincts as the case may be, such as the Court Building, Chamber Blocks, library, health centre, canteens etc.

(ii) GSICC will organize programmes for the gender sensitization of the High Court or the District Courts community as the case may be, through workshops, seminars, posters, film shows, debates, displays, etc.

(iii) GSICC shall submit an Annual Report by December 31 every year to the Chief Justice or District & Sessions Judge as the case may be which shall be made public outlining the activities undertaken by it and charting out a blueprint for the activities/steps to be taken up in the following year along with necessary budget allowances required by it. The GSICC shall include in its Annual Report the number of cases filed, if any, and their disposal under these Regulations in the annual report.

(iv) GSICC may enlist the help of NGO's, associations, volunteers, lawyers, lawyer's bodies, or the concerned legal services authorities to carry out these programmes.

(v) GSICC will enlist and activate an adequately representative team of volunteers and shall ensure the widespread publicity of the contact details (both official and personal) of all its members and volunteers. The services of such volunteers shall be available at all times to any aggrieved woman or any person in need of consultation or guidance. Volunteers will also assist in the gender sensitization, crisis mediation and crises management duties of GSICC, but shall not participate in the task of formal redressal of complaints under these Regulations and Procedures.

(vi) GSICC will organize and train members and volunteers to equip them to handle sexual harassment cases including legal and medical aspects of aid.

(3) Crisis Management and Mediation - The concerned GSICC shall ensure that there is quick and responsive crises management, counseling and mediation available to all aggrieved women expeditiously which shall include the following activities:

- (i) GSICC will assist in the mediation of crises arising out of incidents of sexual harassment at the High Court or the District Courts precincts as the case may be.
- (ii) No mediation shall conclude without approval of the GSICC, and the mediated settlement shall be effected and be enforceable only upon it being duly approved by the GSICC which shall satisfy itself that the said mediation settlement is voluntary, fair, unbiased, and free from any extraneous consideration or influence.

GSICC will coordinate with the Registry of the High Court or the concerned District & Sessions Judge as the case may be to devise ways and means by which a system of prevention of and crisis management that is gender-sensitive as well as prompt and effective is put in place. It will maintain regular contact through the Member Secretary with the Registry of the High Court or the concerned District & Sessions Judge as the case may be to ensure that in crises arising out of incidents of sexual harassment, GSICC members, and/or the volunteers identified by it, shall be intimated of such incidents without delay.

(4) Complaint Redressal - The concerned GSICC shall ensure that every complaint of an aggrieved woman is adequately dealt with in accordance with the established procedure and with complete sensitivity. The concerned GSICC shall have the power to inquire into and pass orders against the Respondent/deviant/delinquent in a complaint made in relation to any form of sexual harassment in the entire precincts of the High Court or the District Courts as the case may be.

CHAPTER III

COMPLAINT & INQUIRY INTO COMPLAINT

8. Complaint of Sexual Harassment - (1) Any aggrieved woman may make a complaint in writing of sexual harassment at the High Court or the District Courts precincts to the concerned GSICC through the Member Secretary in accordance with the form and procedure so notified by it.

Provided that where the aggrieved woman is unable to make such a complaint in writing due to any reason, the Member of the concerned GSICC or volunteer, as the case may be, shall render all reasonable assistance to the woman for making the complaint in writing.

(2) Where the aggrieved woman is unable to make a complaint on account of her physical or mental incapacity or death or for any other reason, her legal heir or such other person directly concerned with her interests may make a complaint under this Regulation.

9. Inquiry into complaint - (1) On receiving a complaint and upon being satisfied with regard to the genuineness of the Complaint, the concerned GSICC shall constitute an Internal Sub-Committee to conduct a fact finding inquiry, which shall comprise of three members of the GSICC itself, or such other persons as to be so nominated by the GSICC in its meeting, with majority members being women, and at least one person being an outside member.

(2) The Internal sub-Committee shall conduct an inquiry and shall hear and duly record the statements of the aggrieved woman, the Respondent, and any other person the said parties wish to examine, subject to the provisions of Regulation 13(2), and thereafter it shall prepare a Report and enclose therein the complete proceedings of the Inquiry.

(3) The fact finding inquiry into a Complaint shall be conducted and completed within 90 days of the Constitution of the Internal Sub-Committee.

Provided that the validity of any inquiry shall not be called into question upon the inquiry not being completed with the stipulated period due to reasons beyond the control of the internal sub-Committee.

10. Inquiry Report - (1) On the completion of an inquiry under these Regulations, the Internal sub-Committee shall provide the Inquiry Report of its findings along with the complete record of the inquiry proceedings including the pleadings and all the material on record to the concerned GSICC within a period of ten days from the date of completion of the inquiry and such Report shall also be made available to the concerned parties.

(2) Where the Internal sub-Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the Respondent has not been proved, it shall recommend to the concerned GSICC that no action is required to be taken in the matter.

(3) Where the Internal sub-Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the Respondent has been proved, it shall recommend to the concerned GSICC to take appropriate action for gender discrimination and/or sexual harassment.

(4) Upon consideration of the material on record and the Inquiry Report of the Internal Sub-Committee, if more than two-thirds of the members of the concerned GSICC differ from the conclusion of the Internal sub-Committee, the concerned GSICC shall after hearing the aggrieved woman and Respondent in person, record its reasons to so differ and take consequent action accordingly.

(5) The concerned GSICC shall pass orders either accepting or rejecting the Inquiry Report of the Internal Sub-Committee and thereafter pass consequent orders that may be appropriate and necessary for putting an end to the sexual harassment and take all steps to secure justice to the victim of sexual harassment within 45 working days of submission of the Inquiry Report of the Internal sub-Committee, excluding the period of holidays, and/or vacation of the High Court or the District Courts as the case may be.

Provided that the validity" of the orders of the concerned GSICC shall not be called into question upon the same not being passed within the stipulated time.

11. Orders on Inquiry Report - (1) Subject to Regulation 9(1) above, the concerned GSICC shall have the power to pass the following orders to secure justice to the victim of sexual harassment:

(a) admonition;

(b) admonition with publication of such admonition in the High Court or District Courts precincts as the case may be, including cause lists and website of the High Court or the concerned District Courts;

(c) prohibition from harassing the victim in any manner including, but not limited to, prohibition from communicating with her in any manner such as phones, messages, electronic means physical or other means for a specified period; and

(d) subject to Regulation 11(2), pass all orders, directions, and/or direct taking steps necessary for putting an end to the sexual harassment of the aggrieved woman.

(2) GSICC at the High Court level and District Court level will also have the power to recommend to the Chief Justice or the concerned District & Sessions Judge as the case may be, to pass orders against the Respondent including, but not limited, to the following:

(a) debarment of entry into the High Court or concerned District Courts precincts as the case may be, for a specified period extending upto a maximum period of one year; and

(b) in appropriate cases, to recommend filing of a criminal complaint and/or a disciplinary complaint before the concerned disciplinary authority governing the Respondent (including the concerned Bar Council) for taking appropriate action, and the Chief Justice or the concerned District & Sessions Judge as the case may be, may pass orders thereon subject to Regulation 12.

(3) The concerned GSICC shall pass orders on the Inquiry Report and/or shall make recommendations to the Chief Justice or the concerned District & Sessions Judge as the case may be within 45 working days of the submission of the Inquiry Report, excluding the period of vacation of the High Court or the District Courts as the case may be, and communicate the same to the parties forthwith,

(4) The concerned GSICC and the Internal sub-Committee shall have the jurisdiction to inquire into a complaint and take any action thereon notwithstanding that any criminal complaint or any other complaint under any other law (including a disciplinary proceeding under the Advocates Act, 1961) may have been filed with respect to the same complaint/actions..

(5) The orders of the Chief Justice or the concerned District & Sessions Judge and the concerned GSICC shall be final and binding on the parties.

12. Representation - (1) Any person aggrieved by the order passed (or not passed) by the GSICC under Regulation 11(1), or recommendation made by the GSICC to the Chief Justice or the concerned District & Sessions Judge as the case may be under Regulation 11 (2), or non-implementation of such orders or action may make a representation to the Chief Justice or the concerned District & Sessions Judge who shall have the power to set aside or modify the orders passed or the recommendation made as the Chief Justice or the concerned District & Sessions Judge may deem fit, and also have the power to issue such orders or directions that may be necessary to secure complete justice to the victim of sexual harassment. The representation under Regulation 12(1) shall be preferred within a period of ninety days of communication of the order or recommendation.

13. Restraint Order - (1) On the receipt of a Complaint and during the pendency of an Inquiry, on a written request made by the aggrieved woman, the concerned GSICC if it considers it fit and proper may recommend specific interim measures to be taken in a signed decision to the Chief Justice or the concerned District & Sessions Judge, who on receipt thereof may pass such interim orders that may be required for the personal safety and for safeguarding the dignity of the aggrieved woman, and both the aggrieved woman and the Respondent shall be bound by the same.

(2) Upon disobedience, defiance or violation of the order passed under clause (1) above by the Respondent, the concerned GSICC shall close and/or strike off the defence of the Respondent and pass final orders under Regulation 10(5) and Regulation 11.

CHAPTER IV POWERS & DUTIES

14. Powers of GSICC & Internal sub-Committee - (1) The concerned GSICC shall have the power to issue circulars/notifications prescribing its procedure and for the purpose of carrying out and implementing the provisions of the present Regulations in their spirit and intent with the approval of the Chief Justice.
